CONDITIONS OF SALE

The property listed in this catalogue will be offered and sold subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The word "Company", wherever used in these Conditions of Sale, means the American Art Association-Anderson Galleries, Inc.

2. The Company has exercised reasonable care to catalogue and describe correctly the property to be sold, but it does not warrant the correctness of description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of said property.

3. All bids are to be PER LOT as numbered in the catalogue, unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer at the time of sale.

4. The highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer shall be the buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, the auctioneer may, in his discretion, determine who is the successful bidder, and his decision shall be final; or the auctioneer may reoffer and resell the article in dispute.

5. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance over the previous bid, may be rejected by the auctioneer, in his discretion, if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

6. The name and address of the buyer of each article, or lot, shall be given to the Company immediately following the sale thereof, and payment of the whole purchase price, or such part thereof as the Company may require, shall be immediately made by the purchaser thereof. If the foregoing condition, or any other applicable condition herein, is not complied with, the sale may, at the option of the Company, be cancelled, and the article, or lot, reoffered for sale.

7. Unless the sale is advertised and announced as an unrestricted sale, or a sale without reserve, consignors reserve the right to bid.

8. Except as herein otherwise provided, title will pass to the highest bidder upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchaser's sole risk and responsibility.

9. Articles sold and not paid for in full and not taken by noon of the day following the sale may be turned over by the Company to a carrier to be delivered to a storehouse for the account and risk of the purchaser, and at his cost. If the purchase price has not been so paid in full, the Company may either cancel the sale, and any partial payment already made shall thereupon be forfeited as liquidated damages, or it may resell the same, without notice to the buyer and for his account and risk, and hold him responsible for any deficiency.

10. If for any cause whatsoever any article sold cannot be delivered, or cannot be delivered in as good condition as the same may have been at the time of sale, the sale will be cancelled, and any amount that may have been paid on account of the sale will be returned to the purchaser.

11. In addition to the purchase price, the buyer will be required to pay the New York City sales tax, unless the buyer is exempt from the payment thereof.

12. The Company, subject to these Conditions of Sale and to such terms and conditions as it may prescribe, but without charge for its services, will undertake to make bids for responsible parties approved by it. Requests for such bidding must be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding as to the amount to be bid and must state the catalogue number of the item and the name or title of the article to be bid on. The Company reserves the right to decline to undertake to make such bids.

13. The Company will facilitate the employment of carriers and packers by purchasers but will not be responsible for the acts of such carriers or packers in any respect whatsoever.

14. These Conditions of Sale cannot be altered except in writing by the Company or by public announcement by the auctioneer at the time of sale.

THE SHEA LIBRARY

IN the archives of the Shea family are still to be found the manuscript records of some of the 1830 traders of Pittsburgh, the ancestors of Joseph B. Shea; and beginning with these, added to by grandparents and parents and crowned with the collector's diadem by Joseph B. Shea himself, this collection marks an epoch in broad-minded, sustained, and perfect collecting. Throughout his life Mr. Shea was an ardent patron of music, art, and literature, and in the last class made a name for himself renowned the world over.

The collection may be divided roughly into two classes, historical Americana and English and American literature. Seldom indeed is a collection so well rounded in the fields it covers. The second division, including some of the most desirable of the original issues of the works of seventeenth to nineteenth century English authors, as well as early and later American authors, will be sold early in January, 1938.

In the forming of this collection it was demanded that a book be in perfect condition, clean, uncut, and in the original binding if possible—but if a volume could be improved by binding, it was done.

It was in the realm of historical Americana that Mr. Shea reveled, and here his collecting was wide and systematic. Beginning with his own state, he collected works that related to its settlement and progress, local history and the manners and customs of the people, with special attention to early personal narratives. Naturally Pittsburgh was foremost in his thoughts, and on that subject he collected everything obtainable and formed one of the finest collections in existence, not only of historical material but of Pittsburgh authors and imprints.

Closely associated is the important collection of trans-Allegheny discovery and settlement beginning with the period of the French and Indian War and including items about Washington's expedition, the Braddock defeat, the defense of the frontiers, settlements on the Ohio and Mississippi and the navigation of those rivers, including the finest set of Cramer's "Navigators" in existence and a practically unknown series of prospectuses of the Scioto Company.

Mr. Shea's special delight was in personal narratives of all kinds, but he devoted most of his attention to his famous collection of narratives of Indian captivity, an alphabetical list of which follows this introduction. This list includes the separate narratives and only a few of the many hundreds found in collected works described in this catalogue. The rarest of this group is the Fleming narrative published in Philadelphia in 1757 with an introduction newly ascribed to Benjamin Franklin, believed to have been printed by Franklin & Hall. Aside from the narratives of Indian captivity, there is a huge collection of historical material relating to the Indians, including some of the rarest items.

Highly interested in the settlement and development of the Far West, Mr. Shea collected a large proportion of the overland narratives and accounts of exploring expeditions, early guides, and proposals for and early accounts of settlements, including many bibliographical and historical treasures. The broad field of general historical and American travel is covered by the most authoritative works contemporary with the events described. The French and Indian War, the American Revolution, and the War of 1812 groups are not only large but contain many of the most important and rarest items.

To those collectors to whom "condition" makes a strong appeal, the splendid condition of nearly every volume in this collection will be at once apparent.

Many volumes, even of the rarest, are practically as new, and though the almost inevitable time-stains often appear, there are only one or two instances of a badly foxed book. Many are uncut, in the original bindings.

INDEX TO NARRATIVES OF INDIAN CAPTIVITY

79. BUCKLAND, JOHN [JAMES], AND JOHN FIELDING. An Account of the Discovery of a Hermit, Who lived about 200 Years in a Cave, at the Foot of a Hill, 73 Days Journey Westward of the great Alleghany Mountains. Written by John Buckland and John Fielding, the Persons who discovered him. 12mo, unbound. In a full red levant morocco slip case.
Pittsburg (Virginia) Printed: Providence: Reprinted and Sold at the Printing-Office in Westminster-Street, 1787

EXCEEDINGLY RARE. No copy is located by Evans, who gives another first name for the author in his title, and no collation. A RECORD OF THE FIRST PITTSBURGH PRINTER AND ONE OF THE FIRST BOOKS PRINTED IN THAT CITY.

The curious imprint "Pittsburg (Virginia)" shows that the Pittsburgh edition must have been printed early in 1786 before the news of the final settlement of the boundary between Pennsylvania and Virginia became known to the printer, John Scott, for that question was finally settled in 1785.

APPARENTLY THE FIRST COPY TO APPEAR AT PUBLIC SALE. IN SUPERB CONDITION. This Third Edition was printed by John Scull, THE FIRST PRINTER OF PITTSBURGH, before Cramer began printing his own books. The first two editions were printed in 1801.

Zadok Cramer was born in New Jersey about 1774 of Quaker parentage and was taken to western Pennsylvania while very young. When old enough he was apprenticed to a printer and bookbinder in Washington, Pa., but after taking part in the Whiskey Insurrection he went to Pittsburgh and began bookbinding. In 1800 opportunity knocked at his door through the death of John Gilkison, the first bookseller in the western country. To operate his Franklin Head bookstore Gilkison had borrowed money from Judge H. M. Brackenridge, and the latter sold it to Cramer "on the most advantageous terms". Cramer soon had it on a sound financial footing, added a press, and

POSSIBLY THE ONLY KNOWN COPY

WITH AN INTRODUCTION PROBABLY BY FRANKLIN AND PROBABLY PRINTED BY FRANKLIN AND HALL

189. FLEMING, WILLIAM AND ELIZABETH. A Narrative of the Sufferings and Surprizing Deliverance of William and Elizabeth Fleming, Who were taken captive by Capt. Jacob, Commander of the Indians, who lately made an Excursion on the Inhabitants of the Great-Cove, near Conecochieg, in Pennsylvania, as related by themselves. 12mo, full olive calf, blind tooled in diamond-shaped panels, by PAWSON & NICHOLSON; two loose fly-leaves, minute repairs.

Philadelphia: Printed for the Benefit of the unhappy Sufferers, and Sold by them only [1755 or 1756]

A SUPERB COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION. POSSIBLY THE ONLY KNOWN COPY. The Brinley copy, from which all bibliographers apparently have taken their description, was described as bound in "paneled calf antique", which description fits this copy as well. There are no marks or label to distinguish this copy; if it is the Brinley it apparently is THE ONLY KNOWN COPY.

"The first of November, 1755, the Inhabitants of the Great-Cove were alarm'd by a Relation given by one Patrick Burns (who had been sometime a Captive among the Indians, but that Day made his Escape) that the Delawares and Shawnese (spirited by our restless Enemies the French) were within seventeen Miles of the inhabited Part of this Province from Fort Du Quesne, and had divided themselves in several large Bodies, in order to make a Descent on the Frontiers of this and the neighbouring Provinces." The Flemings were captured and their home was burned, but they managed to make their escape in a few days.

The "Introduction to the Reader" reads in part as follows: "The Public were informed of the taking of William Fleming and his Wife, in the Pennsylvania Gazette for November 13th 1755. The chief Aim in publishing the following Narrative, is to let them know the Particulars of it . . ." As the "Pennsylvania Gazette" was published by Franklin and Hall it is probable that this work was printed by them and that the introduction was written by Franklin himself. It was also advertised in the "Pennsylvania Gazette" for January 8, 1756.

An INTRODUCTION

To the READER.

THE Public were informed of the taking of William Fleming and his Wife, in the Pennſylvania GAZETTE for November 13*th* 1755. The chief Aim in publiſhing the following Narrative, is to let them know the Particulars of it ; and to give an Idea of the Diſtreſſes of ſuch as are ſo infortunate as to fall into the Hands of our Savage Enemies, to thoſe who may ſeem diſintereſted in theſe Matters, or make light of them.

Not to be touched with the Misfortunes of even the moſt diſtant of our Fellow Creatures, ſhews a want of that Tenderneſs and Compaſſion requir'd in a Chriſtian: But to remain inſenſible when we ſee thoſe for whom we ought to be concern'd by many Ties (as Members of the ſame Common-wealth) expoſed to ſuch Hardſhips as ſeem almoſt inſurmountable to human Nature, is cruel and inhuman.

Did we for a Moment ſuppoſe ourſelves in the Place of either of theſe Perſons, to be Spectators and Sufferers in theſe melancholly Scenes: ------See our kind, obliging Neighbour maſſacred before our Eyes ;-----his Body cruelly torn while yet alive ;-----Ourſelves bound faſt to a Tree unable to aſſiſt him ; expecting the next Moment to be a Sharer of his Fate ; or what is as bad, hurried into the moſt abject Slavery with very little Proſpect of being ever ſet at Liberty :----Did we fancy ourſelves wandering through pathleſs Wilds, every Moment expecting to become a Prey to ravening Monſters, or fall a Victim to Savage Fury ; when a Morſel of Bread, and a Drink of Water would make a delicate Repaſt ;-----weak and feeble, yet expoſed to all the Inclemencies of Weather, without Reſt or Hopes of Life : I ſay did we fancy ourſelves thus ſituated, it might perhaps aſſiſt us in forming ſome Idea of the Sufferings, not only of thoſe mentioned here, but of ſome Hundreds of our poor back Settlers. It might alſo teach us to ſet a juſter Value on the Liberty and Mercies we now perhaps unthankfully enjoy.

As moſt of the Facts are truly ſurprizing, it is not doubted but they may raiſe in ſeveral, an high Reverence for the Goodneſs of that Being who is the Helper of the Diſtreſſed, and never fails to reſcue his Creatures who truſt in him, out of the greateſt Dangers, and often from the very Brink of Ruin.

The NARRATIVE, &c.

I WILLIAM FLEMING, born in Scotland, aged Twenty Years, came over from my native Country Two Years and Four Months ſince, and followed Pedling for ſome Time in this and the neighbouring Provinces, about a Year ſince I married Elizabeth my Wife, who was born in Ireland, and is aged Twenty-five to the enemy, but made his escape from them all, and arrived safe home. Fourth Edition, revised and enlarged. 12mo, contemporary wrappers, rough sewn. In a half red morocco slip case. Ipswich, N. H.: S. Wilder, 1827

196. [FRANKLIN, BENJAMIN.] An Historical Review of the Constitution and Government of Pennsylvania. 8vo, full contemporary calf. London, 1759

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION. Franklin prepared the material for this work, and William Franklin and Richard Jackson did the writing.

From the library of Philip Hamond, with bookplate.

197. [——] A True and Impartial State of the Province of Pennsylvania. Small 8vo, half old calf; rebacked.
Philadelphia: W. Dunlap, 1759

The rarest of the controversial tracts produced by William Smith's "Brief State of Pennsylvania" [see Number 589], this was inspired if not written by Franklin, and is an able presentation of the claims of the Assembly of Pennsylvania against the proprietors. With the contemporary autograph of John Pringle on the title-page, and other writing (partly erased).

AN UNCUT COPY OF A RARE WORK

198. [FRANKLIN, BENJAMIN.] A Narrative of the late Massacres in Lancaster County, of a Number of Indians, Friends of this Province, by Persons Unknown. With some Observations on the same. 8vo, half calf, gilt top, UNCUT.

[Philadelphia] Printed [by Anthony Armbruster]
in the Year 1764

THE EXCEEDINGLY RARE FIRST EDITION of one of the best pieces of controversial writing ever done by Franklin. In it he denounces the acts of the "Paxton Boys" in no measured terms, and compares their deeds unfavorably with the atrocities of the Spaniards.

The publication of this work led to the advance of the "Paxton Boys" on Philadelphia, where Franklin met them and persuaded them to return to their homes.

THE UNITED STATES IN 1810-1: THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT JOURNAL OF A TOUR THROUGH THE ATLANTIC STATES

WITH OVER SIXTY WATERCOLOR, PEN, AND PENCIL DRAWINGS OF CITIES, BUILDINGS AND SCENES, INCLUDING VIEWS OF BOSTON, WASHINGTON, CHARLESTON, AND OTHERS

213. GLENNIE, J. S. ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT JOURNAL, signed many times, of, "The Particulars of and Sketches Taken During a Voyage to and Journey Over The United States of America and back, Commencing 24th September, 1810." ABOUT 95 PP. OF MANUSCRIPT, large and small folio, about 40,000 words. Illustrated with 66 original drawings, over half of which are watercolor or wash drawings, others in pen or pencil or combination. Folio, original boards, roan back.

ONE OF THE FINEST ILLUSTRATED ARTIST'S JOURNALS OF TRAVEL IN THE UNITED STATES DURING THIS PERIOD. Several of these views were engraved by Hewitt and published.

Glennie apparently was one of the pioneer artist-travelers whose example was followed by Bartlett and many others. He was a Scotsman, the son of a prominent merchant, a pupil of Dr. Hamilton of Aberdeen, a relative of Dr. Beattie and a friend of Sir Walter Scott. He came to America with the best letters of introduction and was at once admitted into the choicest circle of American social life. A part of the journal is written in the form of letters to his mother, each of which is signed.

Glennie sailed from London on September 24, 1810, on the ship "Thomas Penrose", and before the company cleared land he had painted seven watercolors, "The Island of Shippy", "North Foreland Light", "Ramsgate Harbour", "Coast of France", "Dover Castle and Town", and others; and on the voyage, "Island of St. Michaels", two views of the "Peak of Pico", "Island of Fayal", "Sketch of the Forecastle and Maindeck of the Thomas Penrose", and the "First Appearance of American Land, November 15, 1810".

Glennie also painted a watercolor of the "Cape James Light house in the mouth of the River Delaware" before he landed at Philadelphia. Here, due to his credentials, he met with a cordial reception, and in his letters to his mother he describes the city, buildings, public and private stages, wagons, and sleighs; the people, parties and dancing, the theatre and its actors, and particularly the ladies. (Watercolor: "A Servant Girl going to market".)

A letter by Glennie dated December 18, 1810, gives a splendid description of a trip to New York over dangerous roads: the Delaware river road to Trenton thence to Princeton, Brunswick, over the North river (which he meant to explore) and New York City, which to him looked quite European with its spires. He describes his adventures in New York, the maid at the City Hotel on Broadway, the theatre where he saw Cooke in "Macbeth", the city as he saw it, and the rough return to Philadelphia.

On January 15, 1811, Glennie left Philadelphia for a tour of the Southern States. At Baltimore he visited Mr. Patterson where he met his old acquaintance Madame Jerome Bonaparte, and Mr. Jarvis the portrait painter. On his way to Washington he painted a watercolor of the "Lower Falls of the Potomac 3 miles from Georgetown, Jan. 24, 1811".

A DESCRIPTION OF DOLLY MADISON

Glennie describes Washington, the capitol and the president's house; tells of meeting Robert Smith, Secretary of State, Mr. Eustis, Secretary of War, and of his introduction to and his dining with President Madison:

"Mr. Madison appears to be a quiet man & in figure is rather diminutive, with an emaciated countenance. His Lady is a jolly, sensible & pleasant woman. Considerably taller than her husband & what he wants in color she has".

After a visit to Alexandria where he painted a watercolor of "the River Potomac from Crawford's Tavern in Georgetown" showing "Alexandria" in the distance, the writer returned to Baltimore and renewed his acquaintance with Madame Bonaparte, and also met "Miss Susan, the finest dancer in the Middle States". Here too "I was informed of the curious circumstance that the women in the State of New Jersey on the East Side of the Delaware were entitled to vote but in no other State". He also drew a pencil and watercolor sketch of his friend "Reeve Lewis in bed early in the morning".

Glennie sailed from Philadelphia on March 8, 1811, for Charleston, S. C., in the ship "Pennsylvania", Captain Green, and encountered both violent storms and dead calms on the way. Glennie made a pencil drawing of a ship he passed, the "Schooner Independence from Martinique" and a pen and wash drawing of Captain Green.

ILLUSTRATIONS OF CHARLESTON

His description of Charleston is illustrated with a watercolor of "Charleston from the Bridge over Ashley River distant 2 miles—3 April 1811"; wash drawing "Sketch of the Bridge over Ashley River near Charleston, 28 March 1811"; "Sketch of the Harbour, Fort Sullivan Island & Fort Johnson from the South Bay Charleston on the Morning of 28 March 1811"; pencil and wash drawing of "Elevation of the Planters Hotel Charleston"; "St. Michaels Church, the tip of the Branch Bank of the U. S. & part of the Gable & Roof of the Court House"; and a pencil sketch of the brig "Hannah" at anchor.

Glennie entered at once into the social gaities of Charleston: "I went to an Annual ball given by the Bachelors of Charleston, & held at the St. Cecelia Rooms—This is given in Competition to an Annual one by the Married Men, & is generally preferred by the Ladies for its gaiety & splendor." He met a party of Scotsmen he knew, witnessed a slave auction, helped put out a fire, became sick and was bled by a doctor to reduce the fever; dined with Mr. Rutledge, saw the Catawba Indians, visited the military barracks, and bought horses and a wagon for a land journey to the north.

The beginning of April saw Glennie and his companion Mr. Barclay start their drive through the forest on the way north. It was a leisurely trip, with many a pause to sketch and to take part in the social enjoyments on the road. First they stopped at Major Thomas Pinckney's, where Glennie made sketches of "Eldorado", and of "Fairfield" the residence of Thomas Pinckney, Jr., on the south bank of the Santee river; thence to Thomas Middleton's plantation, which carried 350 Negroes. They crossed the Santee and drove to Georgetown.

"Since we left Charleston I may safely say that we have travelled by Land, water, & fire, thro a continued forest of pine wood filled with Snakes, Squirrels, Birds, Hogs, frogs, flowers &c. &c. &c."

Georgetown is described as "deserted", but nearby they visited Major Wragge where for breakfast "A cake called Journey cake is always introduced. It is made of rice & has this name from being quickly made for strangers travelling through the country." They also visited Frederick Kinloch and described his rice fields, the Negro villages, and the marriage customs of the slaves. There are watercolors of "Wedgefield", and "Kensington", the residences of Major Wragge and Frederick Kinloch, and also of McCleland Kinloch's rice mill.

Virginia

which is ~~pleasantly~~ situated on the N W side of the Road under a Shade of Magnificent Oaks — The house is lately built, and affords every comfort to Travellers — we ordered Dinner & while it was preparing I employed myself in Sketching the house & Trees, as they appear, from the Road as we approached —

After Dinner we set out for Brandon the Residence of Mrs Harrison, an acquaintance of Mr Barclay's & Mother to Mrs Taylor whose husband, the day before, proposed us to visit this place
Brandon is 14 Miles from Gaireys, the road to it is good, but the Country thro' which we passed is very poor — we arrived as Mrs Harrisons family had nearly finished dinner, & were received by her & her Brother Mr Baird, with the usual hospitality — Mrs Harrison has a large family of her Own four Daughters & three Sons, four of whom were with her, as also her Brother his wife & his Wife's Brother and Children, accompanied by a Young Lady, a relation of my Old Acquaintance Mr Robt Rhedes of London — Early in the Morning of the 28th it had rained & thundered, & before breakfast time, the Air was clear & the Sun so warm & bright, that the forenoon was delightfull for Walking — I amused myself with the pencil, wishing to carry with me, as correct a Copy of this comfortable & large house, as I could — Our party at breakfast was pretty numerous & before dinner it was added to, by the agreeable company of Mr Taylor, Mr Waxall, Capt Sergeant & some other Gentlemen — In the course of the afternoon, Capt Sergeant discovered to me his being acquainted with Mr Strachan, Mr Mackenzie & my Father, and enquired after a black Servant of Mr Strachans named Anthony — This Servant ~~was~~ is no other than Anthony whom you had from Mr Strachan at Tooting, & Mr Sergeant whom I met at Mrs Harrisons gave 80 £ for him in Barbadoes — Anthony it seems, accompanied Capt Sergeant to London some Years ago, and was enticed, by a fair Lady whom he espoused there, to leave his Master, to better himself, as Servants generally say — The Captain made many enquiries as to Anthony's fate, of which I told him as far as in my knowledge — It is a curious circumstance that I should meet an old acquaintance of my Father's

OF GAIREY'S TAVERN

[NUMBER 213]

Slowly traveling north they passed through great forest fires and extensive swamps, pausing to sketch "Woods in South and North Carolina burning on each side the Stage Road", "Scene passing the one mile swamp after passing the Great Pedee", "Corn mill and draw well at Gasquays", etc.; and to describe Raleigh, Lewisburg, Warrentown, crossing the Roanoke river to Richard's Tavern in Virginia. Glennie painted watercolors of the state house at Raleigh, their own coach and pair, and of the taking of a hogshead of tobacco to market: "Round the Hogshead at each end is fixed a Kind of Tire of wood, about 9 inches deep, on which it rolls, & in the center of each end, is driven a small piece of Oak, to serve as an Axletree. The Shafts are applyed to this, as to a common Roller, & thus it is dragged along the road without any injury to the Wood of the Hogshead, or the Tobacco which it contains. The Horse is placed in such a Situation as to admit of a Sufficient quantity of Fodder being placed behind him, for the Journey, Cornleaves & a Sack of Corn".

A BEAUTIFUL SKETCH OF NORFOLK

Arriving at Petersburg they visited the home of Mr. Dunlap, where "In the evening I was very much amused with Negro Man who, played on a banjor. It is made of the pumpkin and a long stick for a Handle, in the shape of a guitar, on which is put 4 Strings—With this Instrument Negroes accompany their songs, & both music & Instrument, are nature in its simplest state". Leaving Petersburg they passed Gairey's Tavern, of which Glennie made a sketch [see illustration on the preceding page], Cabin Point Surrey Court House, Smithfield on Pagan Creek, and Sleepy Hole Ferry on Nansemond river, proceeding to Norfolk. At Norfolk Glennie made a beautiful sketch "Norfolk Virginia on the 4th of May 1811. J. S. G." Here, too, he attended a ball given by Mrs. Decatur, Mrs. Maxwell, and the wife of Colonel Hamilton, the British Consul.

"I was given to understand, there is no Clergymen now in Norfolk. This appeared to me inconvenient should there be any wish for Matrimony amongst its inhabitants, as the Ceremony can be Administered by no other person. When there is a Clergyman resident here the Ceremony is performed after publishing the Bands [banns] in Church, the usual number of times or procuring a License, but should there be no Clergyman they must wait till one comes or go to one. Should however any difficulty arise from nonconsent of Parents &c. the parties hurried on by Juvenile passions & spirits, fly to the Gretna Green of Norfolk called Moyoe Mills 30 Miles off, on the border of N Carolina, where answering a few formal questions & washing the Farmers Throat afterwards with a Bowl of good Toddy, the Knot is tyed with their tongues, which their teeth never can undo. From what I have said respecting the Clergymen in Norfolk, one would jud[g]e indifferently of the State of Religion there. Indeed Religion appears to be at a very low ebb throughout Virginia for as we have travelled along, it often happened that the road passed Country Churches. Those which I had an opportunity of examining were in such a deplorable State that my opinion of their not having been used for many Years, was confirmed."

Continuing through Virginia Glennie describes Hampton and its harbor, Yorktown, Williamsburg and its college (where he states that too many students resided at the taverns). He visited Mrs. Byrd and drew a sketch of the Byrd monument. At Richmond Glennie met Judge Marshall and Mr. Sully, "A celebrated painter from Philadelphia", attended the races and made sketches; thence to Fredericksburg and Mount Vernon.

IMPRESSIONS OF MOUNT VERNON

"Mount Vernon is now occupied by Judge Washington—Nephew to the General & a man in appearance who would attract little or no attention, but in mind & Conversation possesses more than most men. Mr. Barclay & I walked round the Place & I took a Sketch from the Summer house, in front. The house is not kept in such good repair as formerly, neither are the grounds. Its situation is beautiful, on the South side of the Potomac of which river it commands a very extensive view, which is much enlivened by the numerous vessels continually passing & repassing. . . . I visited the vault in which the Generals body was laid. It is humbly deposited in a small brick vault, at the Corner of a Potatoe field a short distance from the house, the door of which is wood, now grown old & wormeaten, and over it the trees have grown spontaneously, so that unless we had been told that it was his vault I should have taken it for anything else."

Again Mr. Glennie dined with President Madison at Washington, and with Madame Bonaparte at Baltimore, where he heard of the affair of the "Guerrière". On June 2 he left for Philadelphia, stopping at Wilmington and Chester on the way. In Philadelphia he entered upon a round of festivities:

"I dined with a Society of Gentlemen on the Banks of the Schuylkill, called a Fish Club, which is held at a small Cottage near Egglesfield called the Castle . . . The Club is held once a week during Summer, at this Castle. Every member can bring a friend, & has a small boat belonging to himself with fishing Tackle &c.".

EIGHTEEN ORIGINAL DRAWINGS

Then he visited the Junior and Senior Quoit Clubs, went to Bath, the nearest watering place, where he met Mr. Denny, editor of the "Portfolio". He painted a fine watercolor of the floating bridge over the Schuylkill, and drew several pen sketches. On June 26 he left Philadelphia for New York by way of Trenton. Here ends the manuscript journal, which is followed by 18 original drawings, as follows:

1. Watercolor: scene on the Hudson river, July 30, 1811.
2. Pen and pencil: Passaic Falls.
3. Watercolor: houses and scene on the Chesapeake.

CATALOGUE NUMBERS 226 TO 449 INCLUSIVE

226. HAMMOND, I. B. Reminiscences of Frontier Life. Portrait and plates. 8vo, original wrappers. In new board covers. N.p., 1904

Privately printed for the author's friends. A narrative of a trip across the plains in 1865. Owing to the author's death while the book was in press, nearly the whole edition was destroyed.

227. HANGER, GEORGE. The Life, Adventures, and Opinions of Col. George Hanger. 2 vols., 8vo, half dark green polished morocco, gilt tooled, gilt edges, by RIVIERE. London, 1801

A fine copy of the First Edition. The author came to America with a detachment of Hessians and served with the British during the Revolution. The half-title of Vol. 1 is missing.

228. HARMON, DANIEL W. A Journal of Voyages and Travels in the Interior of North America, . . . extending from Montreal nearly to the Pacific Oceans. Portrait and folding map. 8vo, original calf, leather label; very lightly foxed. Andover, 1820

A fine copy of the rare First Edition, with the half-title, but not containing the list of errata found in some copies. The journal of a fur trader who spent nineteen years among the Indians, containing vocabularies of the Cree Indians and the Tacully or Carrier Tongue.

A FINE RUN OF HARMONY SOCIETY PUBLICATIONS

229. HARMONY SOCIETY. A collection of works published by, for, or about the Harmony Society. Together 11 vols., 8vo and 12mo, calf, wrappers, etc. V.p., 1820-1904

An unusually large collection of Harmony and Economy imprints, many of which are very rare. Comprising the following works:

Harmonisches Gesang Buch. Theils Von andern Authoren, Theils neu verfaszt. 12mo, original sheep; lightly foxed. Allentown, Lecha County: Heinrich Ebner, 1820.

A fine copy of the First Edition of the Harmony Society hymnbook, printed for the Society before it had a press of its own.

Gedanken uber die Bestimung des Menschen, besonders in Hinsicht der gegenwartigen Zeit; von der Harmonie Gesellschaft in Indiana, 1824. 8vo, original wrappers; lightly foxed.

A statement of the principles upon which the Harmony Society was founded, probably edited by Father Rapp himself.

Thoughts on the Destiny of Man, particularly With Reference to the present times, by the Harmony Society in Indiana. A. D. 1827.

Same as the preceding, in English. Both are very early issues from the Harmony Society press in Indiana; priority has not been determined, though probably the German edition was printed first.

Eine kleine Sammlung Harmonischer Lieder als die erste Probe der anfangenden Druckerey anzusehen. 8vo, original wrappers, uncut; lightly stained. Gedruckt in Harmonie, Indiana. 1824.

VERY RARE. At the end is a contemporary 4-p. manuscript index, apparently made by a member of the Society. At the end of the text is a colophon: "Gedr. zu Harmonie, Ja. den 17. Martz, 1824."

K. R. KRAUSE. Lehrbuch der deutshen Sprache fur Schulen. Erster Theil: Sprachunterricht uber einfache Satze. Erste Amerikanische Auflage. 12mo, original half calf; lightly stained. Oeconomie, Pen. 1826.

This and the following are apparently the first two books printed after the Society moved to Economy.

Feurige Kohlen der aufsteigenden Liebesflammen in Lustspiel der Weisheit. Einer nachdenkenden Gesellschaft gewidmet. 12mo, original calf; foxed. Gedruckt zu Oekonomie in Jahr 1826.

At the end are several pages of contemporary manuscript notes, apparently by a member of the Society.

HARMONISCHES GESANGBUCH. Theils Von andern Authoren, Theils neu verfaszt. 12mo, half leather. Oekonomie, Peaver County, im Staat Pennsylvanien. Gedruckt, im Jahr, 1827.

Second Edition, but the first printed by the Harmony Society.

Hirten-Brief an die wahren und achten Freymaurer alten System. 12mo, cloth. Gedruckt bei L. u. W. Reeb, Pittsburg, Pa., 1855.

Although the Harmonists were not Freemasons, yet so highly did they esteem this work that they reprinted it and a copy was placed with every family of the Society.

AARON WILLIAMS. The Harmony Society, at Economy. 12mo, cloth. Pittsburgh, 1866.

GEORGE B. LOCKWOOD. The New Harmony Communities. Illustrated. 8vo, cloth. Marion, Ind., 1902.

JOHN A. BOLE. The Harmony Society. A Chapter in German-American Culture History. Illustrated. 8vo, cloth, Philadelphia, 1904.

AGNES M. H. GORMLY. Economy; an unique Community. 8vo, wrappers, uncut. [Sewickley, Pa., 1910.]

230. HARRIS, THADDEUS M. The Journal of a Tour into the Territory Northwest of the Alleghany Mountains; Made in the Spring of the Year 1803. With a Geographical and Historical

Account of the State of Ohio. 5 maps and plates, all folding. 8vo, ORIGINAL BOARDS, paper label, uncut; joints repaired. In a cloth slip case. Boston, 1805

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION, though the plates and maps at the end of the volume are somewhat foxed. A valuable record of early western travel containing interesting descriptions of many frontier towns and settlements which have since become cities of importance. A portion of the work is devoted to the Indians.

231. HARRISON, WILLIAM H. A Discourse on the Aborigines of the Valley of the Ohio. Folding map. 8vo, ORIGINAL PRINTED WRAPPERS, uncut. In a half red polished morocco slip case. Cincinnati, 1838

A FINE COPY. With the signature of Lewis J. Cist, 1840, on the front wrapper.

232. HASWELL, ANTHONY. Memoirs and Adventures of Captain Matthew Phelps . . . Particularly in two Voyages, From Connecticut to the River Mississippi, From December 1773 to October 1780. 12mo, original sheep; rebacked. In a half brown levant morocco slip case. Bennington, Vermont: Anthony Haswell, 1802

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION. Compiled from the original journals kept by Mr. Phelps. The only surviving record of the hardships and sufferings of this band of adventurers formed by Major Phineas Lyman for the purpose of colonizing a tract of land in the "Natchez Country" on the Mississippi.

233. HAWLEY, ZERAH. A Journal of a Tour through Connecticut, Massachusetts, New-York, the North Part of Pennsylvania and Ohio, including a Year's Residence in that Part of the State of Ohio, styled New Connecticut, or Western Reserve. 16mo, original boards, uncut; rebacked, very faintly foxed. In a cloth slip case. New Haven, 1822

A SPLENDID COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION.

234. HAYWARD, JOHN. The Civil and Political History of the State of Tennessee, from its earliest Settlement up to the Year 1796; including the Boundaries of the State. 8vo, half brown polished morocco. Knoxville, Tenn.: Printed for the Author, 1823

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION OF THE EARLIEST HISTORY OF TENNESSEE, with the rare "Copy Right Secured" leaf preceding the title-page, but without the copyright slip. The work gives an account of the founding of the State of Franklin, and a large portion is devoted to the Indian troubles in that section.

235. —— The Natural and Aboriginal History of Tennessee, up to the first Settlements therein by the White People, in 1768. 8vo, old calf; foxed. Nashville: George Wilson, 1823

The very rare First Edition of one of the most valuable works relating to the Indians of Tennessee. With the leaf of errata.

PRESIDENT MONROE'S COPY

236. HAZARD, EBENEZER. Historical Collections; consisting of State Papers, and other authetic Documents, intended as Materials for an History of the United States of America. 2 vols., 4to, original boards, roan backs; title-page missing from the second volume. Philadelphia, 1792

President James Monroe's copy, with his bookplate in each volume. It was later owned by Judge Cadwallader, by whom it was presented to Brinton Coxe.

A RARE WESTERN NARRATIVE

237. [HEALD, HENRY.] [Caption title:] A Western Tour, in a Series of Letters Written during a Journey through Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and into the States of Illinois and Kentucky:— giving an account of the soil, face of the country, antiquities and natural curiosities &c. 12mo, new cloth, uncut; foxed. In a half brown levant morocco slip case.
[Wilmington: J. Wilson, circa 1820]

Apparently only two copies are known of this early Western narrative, as the copy mentioned by Sabin is probably the present one. Bound in are 2 pp. of manuscript notes by Pusey Heald, nephew of the author, giving a genealogical sketch of the Heald family and several notes about the above-mentioned journey and this volume. In the latter he writes that this copy "was preserved by my Father and presented to me, together with another copy, which I have had bound at same time with this one and hold as a priceless treasure and relic." This copy was presented to Dr. George Henry Heald. Inserted at the end is an A. D. s. by the author, 1 p., 8vo, "Poor House October 26 1824". The author was overseer of the poor. There are a few marginal manuscript notes by Pusey Heald.

The writer journeyed to Ohio to obtain government surveying, but when he arrived it had all been given to others. He describes the land and people, taverns, roads, the scene of Braddock's defeat, slavery, and many curious events of the journey.

A WESTERN TOUR,

IN A SERIES OF LETTERS

Written during a Journey through Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and into the States of Illinois and Kentucky:—giving an account of the soil, face of the country, antiquities and natural curiosities &c.

LETTER I.

M'Connelstown, May 20, 1819.

DEAR BROTHER,

Agreeably to promise, I now borrow an hour of my sleeping time, to inform you of such events and circumstances as may be most interesting; at least such as my recollection will furnish me with.

As you are acquainted with the country through which we have passed, as far as Columbia—I shall commence my tour at that place; leaving you to connect what you personally know, to what you are to know by proxy.

In crossing the Susquehanna Bridge, it gives one the idea of a funeral procession: the bridge is said to be above a mile in length, and is roofed over from one end to the other; openings are left on each side close under the eaves, that admit but a gloomy light—which, together with the slow pace of the traveller (being that of a walk) and the hollow rumbling sound made by the horses feet and the carriages over the wooden floor, will raise in the mind of the passenger the idea of an "entrance into the shades below."

FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION OF ONE OF THE ABLEST TRACTS ON THE RIGHTS OF THE AMERICAN COLONIES

248. [HOPKINS, STEPHEN.] The Rights of Colonies Examined. Published by Authority. Small 4to, full green levant morocco, Jansen style, by BRADSTREET'S; blank corners clipped.
Providence: William Goddard, 1765 [1764]

A FINE COPY OF THE EXCEEDINGLY RARE FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION OF ONE OF THE ABLEST AND MOST TEMPERATE EXPRESSIONS OF THE STAND TAKEN BY THE AMERICAN COLONIES AGAINST THE INVASION OF THEIR RIGHTS BY GREAT BRITAIN.

There were two issues of this tract, one with "Published by Authority" on the title-page and the other with a quotation of two lines from St. Paul. THIS COPY ESTABLISHES THE PRIORITY OF ISSUE. The essay was written for the "Providence Gazette; and Country Journal" and published in that newspaper on December 22, 1764; and this copy bears the inscription on the title-page "Solomon Drowne's Book. Decem'r 22.1764", proving that the pamphlet was issued simultaneously with or before the newspaper text. Solomon Drowne was a prominent merchant of Providence and father of the famous physician of the same name.

AN IMPORTANT HISTORICAL TRACT against the taxation of the American colonies by Great Britain, concerning which Winsor writes, in his "Narrative and Critical History of America", that it was "one of the ablest as well as one of the most temperate expressions of the stand taken by the colonies".

RARE. An unusual Revolutionary item, telling of the exploration of the route before the British advance on Lexington and Concord, the spy's prophecy of defeat of the British army, of his desertion to and faithful service in the American army, of his adventures as an Indian trader and in the War of 1812.

A

CAPTIVITY OF MRS. HORN,

AND HER TWO CHILDREN,

WITH

BY THE

CAMANCHE INDIANS,

AFTER THEY HAD MURDERED THEIR HUSBANDS AND TRAVELLING COMPANIONS;

WITH A BRIEF ACCOUNT OF THE

Manners and Customs of that Nation of Savages,

OF WHOM SO LITTLE IS GENERALLY KNOWN.

Time and distance might efface,
To some extent, the ill that's past;
But while she weeps her captive boy,
Her bitterest cup of woe shall last.

THE EXCEEDINGLY RARE AMERICAN EDITION

261. HUTCHINS, THOMAS. A Topographical Description of Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and North Carolina, comprehending the Rivers Ohio, Kenhawa, Sioto, Cherokee, Wabash, Illinois, Mississippi, &c. The Climate, Soil and Produce, whether Animal, Vegetable, or Mineral; the Mountains, Creeks, Roads, Distances, Latitudes, &c. and of every Part, laid down in the annexed Map. . . . And An Appendix, containing Mr. Patrick Kennedy's Journal up the Illinois River, and a correct List of the different Nations, and Tribes of Indians, with the Number of Fighting Men, &c. 2 folding engraved maps and a folding printed table. 12mo, sewn, FORE EDGES UNCUT, top irregularly trimmed injuring two page numbers, as issued. In a full brown crushed levant morocco slip case. Boston: Printed and Sold by John Norman, 1787

A SUPERB COPY OF THE EXCEEDINGLY RARE AMERICAN EDITION, OF WHICH ONLY A FEW COPIES ARE KNOWN. Although the maps are not signed, they were doubtless re-engraved by the printer and publisher, John Norman, then one of the most famous of the early American engravers, and as such the map of Illinois becomes the first separate map of that territory engraved in America.

262. [IDE, SIMEON.] A Biographical Sketch of the Life of William B. Ide: with a minute and interesting Account of one of the largest Emigrating Companies, (3000 Miles over Land), from the East to the Pacific Coast. And what is claimed as the most authentic and reliable Account of "the virtual Conquest of California, in June, 1846, by the Bear Flag Party", as given by its Leader, The late Hon. William Brown Ide. 12mo, half morocco. [Claremont, N. H.:] Published for the Subscribers [1880]

RARE. Containing "Scraps of California History never before Published". The author compiled the work "as a memorial offering to the memory of a beloved father, to be placed in the hands of so many of his other relatives and their friends as may obtain copies of it, but a small edition of [sic] will be printed".

With a long autograph inscription, signed by the author, on the fly-leaf, Claremont, Nov. 10, 1883:

"I began to write, and set the type for this book, in my 'toy' printing-office, early in 1879*—completed writing, typesetting, proof-reading and correcting—'making up its pages and forms' ready for the press—also, folded and gathered all the sheets for this edition, ready for the binder—all in the year* 1880. And also during said two years I did the kind of work, as above described, on 'An Authentic History of the Conquest of California' [see the following description] & 'Claremont's Manufacturing Industries'. Am in my ninetieth year."

San Francisco: Whitton, Towne, & Co., 1855

IT IS SAID THAT ONLY 25 COPIES OF THIS IMPORTANT NARRATIVE WERE PRINTED. The author's preface reads in part as follows: "These pages are the expansion of a Journal kept while with the Escort from the 4th Infantry, at the Indian Council. A few copies are now printed for some personal friends. While it may show them the nature of Army life on the frontiers, it will preserve for the writer a record of some pleasant scenes on the plains, among tribes which in a few years will cease to exist". The work is an acknowledged source for the history of Oregon.

332. [KIP, LEONARD.] California Sketches, with Recollections of the Gold Mines. 8vo, full green polished calf, gilt and blind tooled, gilt top, by SANGORSKI & SUTCLIFFE. Albany, 1850

In a full brown levant morocco slip case by SANGORSKI & SUTCLIFFE.
Hartford: Printed and sold by Nathaniel Patten, 1783

APPARENTLY THE ONLY COPY WITH THE COMPLETE MAP TO APPEAR AT PUBLIC SALE OF THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN THE NEW WORLD DESCRIBING THE NORTH-WEST COAST. For many years the leading book dealers of both this country and Europe had a carte blanche order to procure a copy of this work for the president of the Oregon Historical Society, Mr. F. V. Holman of Portland; years of search for it proved entirely unavailing, and the hope of ever acquiring the work was given up, when a small dealer in the East discovered the copy now on the coast, which is regarded as the greatest bibliographical prize in the whole field of Western Americana. A long account of the book and its discovery was printed in the local papers of Portland. Historically the knowledge gained by Ledyard during this voyage on the Northwest coast and among the Indians at Nootka, etc., showed him the amazing importance of the region and led to many interviews with Jefferson regarding the country, the necessity of its exploration, of trade with the natives, and of the territory's acquisition by the U. S. These views so impressed Jefferson that he fell in with Ledyard's ideas and, but for the latter's untimely death, would have prosecuted the discoveries then, made some twenty years later by Lewis and Clarke, under Jefferson's auspices.

345. LEE, NELSON. Three Years among the Camanches, the Narrative of Nelson Lee, the Texas Ranger, containing a detailed Account of his Captivity among the Indians, his singular Escape Through the Instrumentality of his Watch, and fully illustrating Indian Life as it is on the War Path and in the Camp. Portrait. 12mo, original cloth. Albany, 1859

A FINE COPY.

FIRST EDITION. An important narrative covering the journey of over seven months on the overland route and the experience of several years in the gold fields.

347. LEFFERTS, CHARLES M. Uniforms of the American, British, French, and German Armies in the War of the American Revolution. Edited by Alexander J. Wall. Portrait and 50 colored plates. 4to, cloth, uncut. New York, 1826

ONE OF 500 COPIES.

348. [LEIGH, SIR EGERTON.] Considerations on certain Political Transactions of the Province of South Carolina: containing a View of the Colony Legislatures. 8vo, half green polished morocco, gilt edges. London, 1774

FIRST EDITION. A review from the royal standpoint of the internal disputes in South Carolina which were contributory causes of the Revolution.

ONE OF THE RAREST WESTERN NARRATIVES

349. LEONARD, ZENAS. Narrative of the Adventures of Zenas Leonard, a Native of Clearfield County, Pa. who spent five Years in Trapping for Furs, Trading with the Indians, &c., &c., of the Rocky Mountains: Written by Himself. 8vo, original half roan; lightly stained. In a full brown levant morocco slip case.
Clearfield, Pa.: D. W. Moore, 1839

A GOOD COPY OF ONE OF THE RAREST NARRATIVES OF THE WEST. ONLY A FEW COPIES ARE KNOWN. Leonard was a member of a large company under Captains Gant and Blackwell which left St. Louis in April, 1831, and after many adventures reached the Pacific coast in November, 1833, under Captain Walker.

[See illustration]

350. LE PAGE DU PRATZ, M. Histoire de la Louisiane, Contenant la Découverte de ce vaste Pays; sa Description géographique; un Voyage dans les Terres; l'Histoire Naturelle; les Moeurs, Coûtumes & Religion des Naturels, avec leurs Origines. 2 folding maps and 40 curious plates. 3 vols., 12mo, full polished Spanish calf, gilt tooled, gilt edges, by RIVIERE. Paris, 1758

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION. The author resided in Louisiana fifteen years, and it is from this relation that most of the details of the life of the Natchez and other Indian tribes have been learned.

351. [LETTS, JOHN M.] California Illustrated: including a Description of the Panama and Nicaragua Routes. 48 tinted lithographs. 8vo, half red morocco, gilt top. New York, 1852

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION.

352. —— A Pictorial View of California. 48 tinted lithographs. 8vo, half levant morocco, gilt top, by BLACKWELL; faintly foxed.
New York, 1853

A later edition of the preceding.

[NUMBER 349]

EARLY WESTERN VIEWS

353. LEWIS, H. Das Illustrirte Mississippithal vom Wasserfalle zu St. Anthony an bis zum Golf von Mexico. Nebst einer historischen und geographischen Beschreibung der Flus begranzenden Landen. Engraved title and 78 FINELY COLORED LITHOGRAPHIC PLATES. Royal 8vo, new cloth, original paper labels; lightly foxed.
Dusseldorf: Arnz & Comp. [1855-7]

THE VERY RARE FIRST EDITION AND ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT ITEMS RELATING TO THE HISTORY OF THE MISSISSIPPI VALLEY. According to J. C. Bay, who made a thorough study of the history of this work, THERE ARE FEWER THAN TWENTY COPIES IN EXISTENCE in public and private collections in America. The publishers failed in business shortly after the publication of the work, and Mr. Lewis had an opportunity to send but few copies to his friends in America. The edition remained in a warehouse until sold as waste paper.

COLORED PLATES. The large double-plate view of New Orleans depicts the shipping, river steamers and buildings. Among the other views are Minneapolis (then a wilderness), St. Paul (a few scattered shanties), St. Louis, Prairie du Chien, Cassville in 1829, Galena, Quincy, Du Buque, Vicksburg, etc. A series of plates picture Indian scenes, steamboat life on the Mississippi, a prairie fire, a grand council of the Indians, Old Fort Snelling, Fort Armstrong, Camp of the U. S. troops, the Mormon Temple at Nauvoo, the Battle of Bad Axe, etc. A number of these plates are probably the earliest colored views of the places represented.

354. [LEWIS, HANNAH.] Narrative of the Captivity and Sufferings of Mrs. Harriot Lewis, and her three Children, who were taken Prisoners by the Indians Near St. Louis, on the 25th May, 1815, and among whom they experienced all the cruel treatment which savage brutality could inflict . . . Folding frontispiece, crudely but lightly colored. 8vo, full red polished morocco, gilt tooled, gilt top, UNCUT, by MACDONALD.
Boston: George Billings, 1818

A VERY RARE EDITION, especially with the plate. Not in the Ayer collection. Other editions of this work give the name of the captive as Hannah Lewis.

355. LEWIS, MERIWETHER, AND CLARKE, WILLIAM. The Travels of Capts. Lewis & Clarke, by Order of the Government of the United States, performed in the Years 1804-6, being upwards of three thousand Miles, from St. Louis by Way of the Missouri, and Columbia Rivers to the Pacifick Ocean. Folding map and 5 plates. 12mo, original sheep, leather label; very faintly foxed.
Philadelphia: Hubbard Lester, 1809

A SUPERB COPY OF THIS RARE EDITION, seldom found with the map. Contemporary inscription on title-page and fly-leaf.

356. —— Travels to the Source of the Missouri River and across the American Continent to the Pacific Ocean. Performed by Order of the Government of the United States in the Years 1804-6. Large folding map and 5 charts on three leaves. 4to, ORIGINAL WRAPPERS, PAPER LABEL, UNCUT. London, 1814

A FINE COPY IN ITS ORIGINAL STATE OF THE FIRST ENGLISH EDITION OF THE GENUINE TRAVELS.

357. —— Original Journals of the Lewis and Clarke Expedition 1804-1806. Printed from the Original Manuscripts in the Library of the American Philosophical Society . . . Together with Manuscript Material of Lewis and Clark from other sources. Portraits and plates and an atlas of 54 maps. 8 vols. in 15, royal 4to, cloth, uncut. New York: Dodd, Mead & Company, 1904

ONE OF 50 COPIES ON IMPERIAL JAPAN PAPER. The most exhaustive and complete account of these pioneer travels, containing material NEVER BEFORE PUBLISHED. A bibliography by Victor H. Paltsits of the various editions of the work is included in the first volume. [See also Numbers 121 and 435.]

358. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. The Assassination of Abraham Lincoln (Oldroyd), Washington, 1901; one of 50 copies signed by the author ❖ Lincoln and the Railroads (Starr), N. Y., 1927 ❖ Lincolniana, Boston, 1865; one of 250 copies ❖ The First Published Life of Abraham Lincoln (Scripps), Detroit, 1900; one of 245 copies ❖ And other works relating to Lincoln. Together 13 vols., 4to to 12mo, half levant morocco, cloth, etc. V.p., v.d.

359. LINFORTH, JAMES. Route from Liverpool to Great Salt Lake Valley. Together with a Geographical and Historical Description of Utah. Folding map of the overland routes from the Missouri river to Utah and 30 engravings from sketches by Frederick Piercy. 4to, original half calf; slightly worn and some plates with corner stains. Liverpool, 1855

FIRST EDITION OF A VERY RARE BOOK. The overland journey of the Piercy party was made in 1853, and his narrative of the adventurous expedition is of very great interest. Starting from New Orleans the party proceeded up the Mississippi to St. Louis and Nauvoo, back to St. Louis, and thence across Missouri and Nebraska to Wyoming, and over the South Pass into the Great Salt Lake valley.

The views, which are of great merit, include those of New Orleans, Natchez, Vicksburg, Memphis, St. Louis, Keokuk, Nauvoo, Council Bluffs, Laramie, Salt Lake City, Fort Bridger, etc.

360. LIPPARD, GEORGE. The Quaker City; or, the Monks of Monk Hall ❖ Washington and his Men ❖ Paul Ardenheim. All illustrated. 3 vols., 8vo, half brown polished morocco, gilt tooled, gilt tops, original wrappers bound in, by BLACKWELL.
Philadelphia [1876]

361. LITERARY EXAMINER, THE, and Western Monthly Review. Vol. I. Edited by E. Burke Fisher, May to December, 1839. With the Continuation: "The Examiner and Hesperian", Nos. 1 and 2. Royal 8vo, half blue levant morocco, gilt top, by STIKEMAN; faintly foxed.
Pittsburgh: Whitney & M'Cord, 1839-40

Containing the first printing of the Indian captivity of Jonathan Alder among the Indian tribes of Ohio, by William D. Gallagher; the first printing of Brackenridge's "Pittsburgh in the Olden Time", and others by the same author; etc.

362. LONG, J. Voyages and Travels of an Indian Interpreter and Trader, describing the Manners and Customs of the North American Indians; with an Account of the Posts situated on the River Saint Laurence, Lake Ontario, &c. To which is added, a Vocabulary of The Chippeway Language. Names of Furs and Skins, in English and French . . . Folding map. 4to, half polished calf, gilt tooled, yellow edges, by MORRELL.

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION, with the leaf of errata and the list of subscribers. The author journeyed as a fur trader among the Indians for nineteen years and gained a thorough knowledge of the life, character, and customs of the Indians.

363. LOPEZ DE GOMARA, FRANCISCO. Histoire Generalle des Indes occidentales, et Terres neuues, qui iusques à present ont esté descouuertes. Augmentée en ceste cinquiesme edition de la description de la nouuelle Espagne, & de la grande ville de Mexicque. Small thick 8vo, old brown morocco, elaborately gilt tooled, coat of arms on sides, gilt edges, mid-seventeenth century.
Paris, 1605

A FINE COPY. Lopez de Gomara was one of the earliest and at the same time one of the ablest of the Spanish historians of the New World; he had access to many documents which have since disappeared.

From the library of Charles J. Manigault, with bookplate.

364. LOUDON, ARCHIBALD. A Selection of some of the most interesting Narratives, of Outrages, committed by the Indians in Their Wars, with the White People. 2 vols., 12mo, original cloth, uncut. Harrisburg, 1888

A FINE COPY OF KING PHILIP'S WAR NARRATIVE QUARTO NO. 3, WITH THE HALF-TITLE

391. MATHER, INCREASE. A Brief History of the War with the Indians in New-England. From June 24. 1675. (when the first Englishman was Murdered by the Indians) to August 12. 1676. when Philip, alias Metacomet, the principal Author and Beginner of the War, was slain. Small 4to, full blue levant morocco, gilt tooled, gilt edges, by RIVIERE.
London: Printed for Richard Chiswell, 1676

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST ENGLISH EDITION. On p. 15 is a fine impression of the woodcut seal of the colony, copied from a block made by John Foster, first American engraver and first Boston printer.

THE MOST FAMOUS OF INCREASE MATHER'S HISTORICAL TRACTS. It was written in answer to Edward Wharton's "New Englands Present Sufferings", in which the author had claimed that the Indian war was a retribution for the sufferings which the Quakers had endured at the hands of the Puritans.

392. MAUDE, JOHN. Visit to the Falls of Niagara, in 1800. 8 proof plates. Royal 8vo, half blue levant morocco, gilt top, by STIKEMAN. London, 1826

FIRST EDITION. ONE OF 250 COPIES. With the 8 pp. of additional notes issued in 1834, which are usually missing. Inscribed on the half-title as follows:

"J. Q. Wright a present from the author a few days before his death at Moor House March 1852". A VERY FINE COPY.

393. MELODY, G. H. C. Notice sur les Indiens Ioways, et sur le Nuage Blanc. Illustrations. 12mo, ORIGINAL PICTORIAL WRAPPERS; one leaf torn, light stains. In a half red morocco slip case. Paris, 1845

An unusual account of the Iowa Indians, with a list of the names of the chiefs, warriors, squaws, etc.

394. METCALF, SAMUEL L. A Collection of some of the most Interesting Narratives of Indian Warfare in the West, containing an Account of the Adventures of Colonel Daniel Boone, one of the first Settlers of Kentucky, comprehending the most important occurrences relative to its early History—also, an Account of the Manners, and Customs of the Indians, their Traditions and Religious Sentiments, their Police or Civil Government, their Discipline and Method of War. To which is added an Account of the Expeditions of Genl's Harmar, Scott, Wilkinson, St. Clair, & Wayne. 8vo, full red levant morocco, gilt edges, by BRADSTREET'S; top of title-leaf and some margins restored. Lexington, Ky.: William G. Hunt, 1821

A FINE COPY OF THIS EXTREMELY RARE COLLECTION OF INDIAN NARRATIVES. It includes the narratives of Dr. Knight, John Slover, Col. James Smith, and others. Field, in his "Indian Bibliography", states that "It is a compilation, principally from available sources, of the narratives which in their original form had, even at the date of its publication, become scarce . . . It has in turn become as rare as the works it sought to preserve from oblivion . . . As one of the earliest imprints of the West, and as a specimen of really excellent typography, as well as a contribution to the literature illustrative of aboriginal and frontier life, it will probably always preserve its rank among rare and costly books."

PRESENTATION COPY FROM THE AUTHOR, inscribed on the preface leaf; part of the inscription has been removed. The slip of errata is missing.

From the library of John Wm. Roy Crawford, with bookplate

411. MORRIS, THOMAS. Miscellanies in Prose and Verse. Stipple portrait. 8vo, full red polished morocco, gilt and blind tooled, gilt edges, by SANGORSKI & SUTCLIFFE. London, 1791
EXCEEDINGLY RARE. Except for a slight defect in the field of the portrait and light stains in the last two leaves, A VERY FINE COPY.
The author served as a captain under General Bradstreet, and has devoted about forty pages of this journal to his personal experiences among the Miami and other Indian tribes in the Ohio country in 1764. The journal was written during the campaign against Pontiac, when the author was captured by the Indians and had a narrow escape from torture and death.

412. MOUNTGOMERY, SIR ROBERT. A Discourse Concerning the design'd Establishment Of a New Colony to the South of Carolina, in the Most delightful Country of the Universe. Folding map. Small 8vo, full black polished morocco, gilt tooled, gilt edges, by STIKEMAN; top and lower margins cut close, shaving numbers and catchwords; rubbed at hinges.

London, Printed in the Year 1717

THE VERY RARE FIRST EDITION. This copy does not contain the two leaves of appendix found in a very few copies. Sir Robert Mountgomery obtained a grant of all the land between the rivers Altamaha and Savannah, and issued these proposals for selling it. His scheme failed to meet with public favor and ended in disappointment.

447. "PAXTON BOYS", THE. A Declaration and Remonstrance Of the distressed and bleeding Frontier Inhabitants Of the Province of Pennsylvania, Presented by them to the Honourable the Governor and Assembly of the Province, Shewing the Causes Of their late Discontent and Uneasiness and the Grievances Under which they have laboured, and which they humbly pray to have redress'd. 8vo, sewn; a few stains. In a cloth slip case.
[Philadelphia:] Printed [by William Bradford] in the Year, 1764

A FINE COPY OF THE RARE FIRST EDITION. ONE OF THE SCARCEST OF THE "PAXTON BOYS" PAMPHLETS, relating entirely to the massacre of the Indians at Lancaster who were murdered in the workhouse where they had been collected by the citizens to protect them from the Scotch-Irish settlers who were called "Paxton boys". The latter burst into the workhouse and, before the citizens could assemble, murdered all the Indians and fled.

The address to Governor John Penn, at the end of the "Remonstrance", is signed by Matthew Smith and James Gibson, on behalf of a "great number of the Frontier Inhabitants", and dated February 13, 1764. On the title-page and its verso and on the final blank leaf is the autograph of James Moon, dated 1764.

448. PEARSE, JAMES. A Narrative of the Life of James Pearse. Containing a general Account of his early Life; and more particularly of five Years Residence in the States of Mississippi and Louisiana, together with some Account of that Country . . . An Account of his unfortunate Imprisonment at Plattsburgh. 12mo, ORIGINAL BOARDS, leather back; lightly foxed. In a half brown levant morocco slip case. Rutland, 1825

FIRST EDITION. A FINE COPY. This work was "designed for the use of men of ordinary life, who wish to emigrate from the Northern and Western States".

ONE OF THE FEW COPIES KNOWN. The personal narrative of John Pearson, who intended to settle in America but was disappointed.

[END OF SECOND SESSION]

TO

The Honourable

WILLIAM KEITH, Eſq;

With the Royal Approbation Lieut. Governour of the Counties of NEW-CASTLE, KENT and SUSSEX upon

DELAWARE,

And the Province of Pennſylvania.

The Humble Addreſs of the Repreſentatives of the ſaid Counties in General Aſſembly met at New-Caſtle the 13*th Day* June, Anno, Domini. 1717.

WITH what Tranſports of Joy, We the Repreſentatives of the Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex on Delaware, in General Aſſembly met, do at this Time wait on your Honour, thoſe only can judge who have been acquainted with our Sighs under the late Adminiſtration of this Government and with our Zealous and repeated Wiſhes and Prayers for your ſpeedy and ſafe Arrival amongſt us

We adore the Divine Majeſty of Heaven for Granting to your Honour a Paſſage ſo eaſy to your Self and Family, and ſo proſperous to us; with the utmoſt Gratitude We acknowledge the King our Sovereign's and His Royal Highneſs the Prince's Approbation of the Choice our Proprietor has ſo wiſely made, for whoſe proſperity, his tender regard to our Eaſe and Welfare as an indulgent Father to this Country will ever engage us to Pray.

The ſame favourable Diſpoſition in your Honour towards us is evidently manifeſted by thus early Summoning your Aſſembly, without any view to your own Intereſt (of which nevertheleſs we ſhall be duly mindful) to acquaint us with an attempt made againſt our Rights and Poſſeſſions, the Conſequence of which we can no otherwayes account for, than in our Miſery and Ruine, an Attempt craftily managed at Home, and ſo intirely contrary to the Senſe as well as Intention, as we would favourably judge, of thoſe who innocently gave the handle, that we muſt beg leave hereupon to repreſent what we believe to be at preſent our Caſe, viz.

This River Delaware, with the adjacent Lands, having been formerly part of that Country called by the Dutch, whilſt in their Poſſeſſion New-Netherland, and then known by the Name of the South River, was taken from them in War, by the Arms of His late Majeſty King CHARLES the Second, and above Fifty Years ago, with all the reſt of that Country, was placed under the Government of His then Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, His ſaid Majeſty's Brother.

Being recovered by the Dutch in a ſecond War from the Engliſh, it was on the enſuing Peace Surrendered by Articles to the Crown of England, immediately after which, it was placed as before, under His Royal Highneſs's Government, the Chief Seat of which was then at New-York, ſo called from His ſaid Highneſs's Title.

A COLLECTION OF RARE EARLY PENNSYLVANIA TRACTS

453. PENNSYLVANIA. A collection of early tracts relating to Pennsylvania. 7 pieces in 1 vol., small folio, half polished calf, all uncut; two lightly foxed.
Philadelphia: Andrew Bradford and S. Keimer, 1717-28

A superb collection of exceedingly rare material relating to Gov. William Keith and his administration of the province of Pennsylvania, covering the struggle between the Proprietaries and the Assembly of the colony. The collection comprises the following works:

[Concluded on following page; see illustration opposite]

(1) To The Honourable William Keith, Esq; With the Royal Approbation Lieut. Governour of the Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex upon Delaware, And the Province of Pennsylvania. The Humble Address of the Representatives of the said Counties in General Assembly met at New-Castle the 13th Day of June, Anno; Domini. 1717. 3 pp.
[Philadelphia: Printed by Andrew Bradford, 1717]

First issue, without added lines at the end. The address of welcome to Sir William Keith on his arrival to become the last governor of Pennsylvania to be appointed by William Penn in person. (Penn died in 1718.)

(2) The Case of Isaac Taylor and Elisha Gatchel, Two Officers of Pennsylvania, made Prisoners by the Government of Maryland. 2 pp.

[Colophon:] Printed at Philadelphia [by Andrew Bradford], in the Year 1723

One of four copies located; this issue varies in title from that quoted by Evans. This rare tract notes a little-known event in the famous boundary dispute between Maryland and Pennsylvania, when both sides were using force to prevent the occupation of the disputed territory.

(3) Hannah Penn, widow of the first Proprietor. [Letter of Instructions] London, 26th of the 3d Month, 1724. Sir William Keith. 4 pp.
[Philadelphia: S. Keimer, 1725]

One of five copies located, the others being in the Library Company of Philadelphia, the John Carter Brown Library, the New York Public Library, and the Levi Z. Leiter collection sold at these Galleries in 1933.

First issue, with a note of eight lines at the end by the printer concerning an omission in the text: "N. B. Those few wrong ones dispos'd of, will be chang'd by the Printer, if desir'd". The most important historical letter of Keith's administration. The Governor had consistently sided with the Assembly and against the Proprietaries, and in this letter, which Mrs. Penn intended to be confidential, she writes in plain terms and gives definite instructions against such a course of action. Keith laid this letter before the Assembly, and so stirred up the populace as to threaten the destruction of the proprietary authority.

(4) The Honest Man's Interest As he Claims any Lands in the Counties of New-Castle, Kent, or Sussex, on Delaware. 4 pp.
[Philadelphia: Printed for Andrew Bradford, 1726]

One of five copies located. A land-owner's argument in favor of the disputed proprietary claims to the counties on the Delaware.

(5) [Logan, James.] A more Just Vindication Of the Honourable Sir William Keith, Bart. Against the unparalleled Abuses put upon him, in a Scandalous Libel call'd, A Just and plain Vindication of Sir William Keith, &c. 4 pp.
[Philadelphia: Printed by Andrew Bradford, 1726]

Keith had been removed from office through the instrumentality of James Logan and had published "A just and plain Vindication of his own conduct". This is Logan's scathing and sarcastic reply.

(6) Advice and Information To the Freeholders and Freemen of the Province of Pensilvania. And particularly to those of the County and City of Philadelphia. 4 pp.
[Colophon:] Philadelphia: Printed by Andrew Bradford, September, 1727

One of six copies located. This tract marks the beginning of a controversy between the supporters of Governor Gordon and those of the deposed governor Keith, which resulted in the election of the latter to the Assembly.

(7) Remarks On the late Proceedings of some Members of Assembly at Philadelphia: April, 1728. 4 pp. [Philadelphia: Andrew Bradford, 1728]

One of five copies located. In March, 1728, Keith fled to England to escape his creditors, and sent his resignation to the Assembly. They did not accept it, but excused him, and therefore did not call for a new election. Thereupon eight members left the Assembly, and this led to a controversy said to have been inspired by Keith to embarass the administration. This tract contains the Assembly's opinion of the eight who withdrew.

454. —— The following numbers of the Citizen, now republished from the Lancaster Journal, are respectfully inscribed to the citizens of Pennsylvania by the Author. Lancaster, December, 10, 1810. 8vo, boards.

[Lancaster:] Printed by William Hamilton [1810]

AN EXCEEDINGLY RARE PAMPHLET on the controversy between the warrantees and the actual settlers on the lands in Pennsylvania lying north and west of the Ohio and Allegheny rivers and Conewango creek. "Citizen" was probably William Hamilton, the publisher of the pamphlet, who had reported the debates in the legislature on the case of Gideon Olmstead and bases these articles on the same case.

The writer gives a history of the defense of the frontier, of the depredations by the Indians on the trading path from Pittsburgh to Venango, of the squatters, and of the lands obtained by warrant.

455. —— Notes and Queries Historical and Genealogical chiefly relating to Interior Pennsylvania. Edited by William H. Egle. First to fourth series, 7 vols.; [together with:] Annual volumes, 1896-1900, 5 vols. Together 12 vols., royal 8vo, cloth, uncut.

Harrisburg, 1894-1900

The first three series are of the reprint edition limited to 100 copies.

456. —— A collection of works relating to the boundary disputes and early history of Pennsylvania. 8 vols., royal 8vo to 12mo, half morocco, calf, etc. V.p., v.d.

The collection comprises the following works:

[BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.] An Historical Review of the Constitution and Government of Pennsylvania. London, 1759.

CAPT. ALEXANDER PATTERSON. A Petition for Compensation for the Monies he Expended and the Services he Rendered in Defense of the Pennsylvania Title against the Connecticut Claimants. Lancaster, 1804.

484. PITTSBURGH ALMANACS. Cramer's Pittsburgh Almanack, Numbers 7, 9, 13, 14, 21, 22, for the Years 1807, 1809, 1814, 1822, 1823. Calculated by the Rev. John Taylor. 6 vols., 12mo, sewn, two in original wrappers. Pittsburgh, 1806-22

ALL GOOD TO FINE COPIES OF THESE RARE ALMANACS. One of the first things accomplished by Cramer after he secured the Franklin Head bookstore in Pittsburgh [see Number 125 for a biographical sketch of Zadok Cramer] was to issue an almanac and the first was issued for 1801. He secured the Rev. John Taylor of the Protestant Episcopal church to write the calculations and many of the quaint sayings, and the almanac became the most popular in the western country.

Each almanac consists of 36 pp., and besides the calendar and the usual tables of courts, roads and distances, etc., there are about 16 pp. of poetry, sketches, recipes, etc.

485.—— Cramer's Pittsburgh Magazine Almanack for the Years 1804, 1807-13, 1815-23, 1825. 18 vols., 12mo, wrappers or sewn.
Pittsburgh, 1803-24

ONE OF THE MOST EXTENSIVE SETS. In 1804 Cramer decided to expand his almanac and he added several pages of historical, literary, and miscellaneous materials. At the same time he continued to issue the Pittsburgh almanac alone, which consisted of the first half of the "Pittsburgh Magazine Almanac". It will be noted that the almanac for 1814 in the preceding lot fills the space for the same year in this series, but contains only the first part. AS ALL OF THESE ALMANACS ARE VERY RARE, a detailed list follows:

1804. First two leaves missing. This is No. 1 of the "Pittsburgh Magazine Almanack"; it contains a view of the manufacturing trade of Pittsburgh for 1803.

1807. A FINE COPY, in the original wrappers; it contains William Clark's letter to his brother, September 23, 1806, describing his expedition to the Pacific.

1808. First two leaves missing.

1809. Complete, but frayed and scribbled upon.

1810. Lacks first two leaves and part of the third.

1811. A FINE COPY in original wrappers; a few corners clipped.

1812. A GOOD COPY with the original front wrapper; a few corners clipped.

1813. A GOOD COPY, uncut, with original front wrapper.

1815. A FINE COPY in original wrappers; corners clipped.

1816. A FINE COPY, uncut, with original front wrapper.

1817. A FINE COPY; it contains an account of the manufactures of western Pennsylvania.

1818. A FINE COPY in original wrappers, uncut.

1819. Complete, with back wrapper; scribbled upon.

1820. Complete except for a corner of the title-leaf; stained.

1821. Corners chewed from last few leaves injuring the text.

1822. A GOOD COPY, though stained.

1823. A GOOD COPY; lightly foxed, farmer's entries in margins.

1825. A FINE COPY, with the original front wrapper; it contains Franklin's "Way to Wealth".

486.—— The same for 1812, 1815, and 1823, perfect copies; 1818, death list clipped from last leaf; 1817, first and last leaves missing; and a fragment of the issue of 1807. Together 6 vols., 12mo, sewn.
Pittsburgh, 1811-22

487.—— No. IV. The Pittsburgh Town & Country Almanac, for Rogues and Honest Folks. 1816. By John Armstrong, Teacher of Mathematics. 12mo, original front wrappers; corners clipped. In a half morocco slip case.
Pittsburgh: R. Patterson, S. Engles, Printer [1815]

A FINE COPY OF A RARE ALMANAC.

A COMPLETE SET OF FIRST EDITIONS OF THE WORKS OF ANNE ROYALL

542. ROYALL, ANNE N. A complete set of FIRST EDITIONS of the works of Mrs. Royall. 12 vols., 8vo and 12mo, half levant morocco (by BLACKWELL) and original boards; some lightly foxed.
New Haven and Washington, 1826-31

APPARENTLY THE FIRST COMPLETE SET TO APPEAR AT PUBLIC SALE.

Though given to personalities and the violent expression of both her sympathies and her antipathies, Mrs. Royall was a shrewd observer, a careful verifier of facts, and a strictly honest writer. There is scarcely a city or town of any importance in the United States of 1826-30 that her keen and observant pen did not sketch. Her "pen portraits" include nearly 2,000 of the great and near-great of her day. The set comprises:

Sketches of History, Life, and Manners, in the United States. By a Traveller. Woodcut frontispiece. 12mo, half morocco. New Haven, 1826. An uncut copy; a corner of one leaf is missing, affecting the text. The first of the series of travel.

The Tennessean: a Novel, founded on Facts. 12mo, half morocco, uncut, with the copyright notice pasted on the verso of the title. New Haven, 1827. Mrs. Royall's only novel.

Scioto Lands on the Ohio: Four Rare Pamphlets

NUMBERS 557-560

557. SCIOTO COLONY. [Caption:] Prospectus pour l'établissement sur les Rivieres d'Ohioet de Scioto, en Amérique. Folding map, partly colored, and folding table. 4to, half brown morocco, red edges. [A Paris: de l'Imprimerie de Prault, 1789]

EXCEEDINGLY RARE. APPARENTLY THE FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION, before an appendix and supplement were added, as described in Thomson's bibliography of Ohio. This copy has 23 pp., signatures A to C in fours.

The Society of the Scioto Company was an offshoot of the Ohio Company of Associates [see Number 428], which arranged to buy from the government a tract of land situated between the Ohio and Scioto rivers. The tract was divided into thirty shares, of which William Duer took thirteen, Dr. Manasseh Cutler and Winthrop Sargent took thirteen jointly, and the other four were to be sold in Europe. Joel Barlow was the European agent; he associated himself with William Playfair, who wrote the present "Prospectus", basing it upon a pamphlet by Dr. Cutler and Captain Hutchins, with additions and glowing descriptions by Playfair. Barlow made a sale of the property to the "Company of the Scioto" who in turn rapidly sold to individuals, but Playfair made off with the funds and both the American and the French company failed.

A SUPERB COPY OF THE "PROSPECTUS", WITH THE MAP IN IMMACULATE CONDITION.

558. —— [Caption:] Avis. [First lines of text:] La Compagnie du Scioto, établie à Paris pour l'exploitation & la vente de trois millions d'acres anglois de terres, situés dans l'Amérique Septentrionale, entre l'Ohio, dite la belle Rivière, & le Scioto. 4to, half brown morocco, red edges, pp. 15.
[Colophon:] A Paris. De l'Imprimerie de Prault, 1789

This item is listed as above by Sabin (Number 78123) and in the Brinley catalogue (Number 4579), but it is possible that it was issued with the preceding "Prospectus", for both were issued by the same publisher. It sets forth the advantages of the country, the terms of sale, etc.

559. —— [Caption:] Observations générales et impartiales sur l'affaire du Scioto. 8vo, half brown polished morocco.
N.p., n.d. [circa 1790]

A favorable consideration of the lands of the Scioto colony. Sabin lists an item under the same title but with different pagination, printed by Didot at Paris in 1790. At the end are quotations from l'Abbé Raynal, Crèvecoeur, and others about the lands on the Ohio.

560. —— Le Parlement de Paris établi au Scioto. 8vo, wrappers, red edges. In a full brown straight-grain morocco slip case.
Sur les Bords de l'Oyo. Et se trouve à Paris, chez tous les Marchands de Nouveautés. 1790

VERY RARE. A FINE COPY. A prediction of what would happen were the parliament of Paris transferred to Scioto. This work contains many references to Benjamin Franklin.

561. SEAVER, JAMES E. A Narrative of the Life of Mrs. Mary Jemison, Who was taken by the Indians, in the Year 1755, when only about twelve years of age, and has continued to reside amongst them to the present time. 565. SEWARD, ANNA. Monody on Major André. To which are added Letters addressed to her by Major André. 4to, old wrappers. In a cloth slip case. Lichfield, 1781

FIRST EDITION, with the signature of the author at the end of the monody.

566. SHAFFORD CAPTIVITY. Narrative of the extraordinary Life of John Conrad Shafford, known by many by the Name of the Dutch Hermit, frontispiece and vignette, 1840 ∵ Another copy, 1841. Together 2 pieces, 8vo, sewn, the second uncut. In a cloth slip case. New York, 1840-1

THE RARE ORIGINAL EDITION and the Second Edition, respectively. Important for the account of the captivity of the hermit's daughter, Ellen Shafford. She was in the hands of the Indians for three months and died three weeks after her ransom. BOTH ARE FINE COPIES, without the wrappers.

567. SHARAN, JAMES. Adventures of James Sharan: compiled from the Journal written during his Voyages and Travels in the Four Quarters of the Globe. 12mo, half blue levant morocco, gilt tooled, gilt top, by BLACKWELL; somewhat time-stained. Baltimore, 1808

FIRST EDITION. In 1787 Sharan was at New Orleans, whence he travelled up the Mississippi valley and through the Northwest Territory. He gives particulars of the various tribes of Indians he encountered.

568. SHERRARD, ROBERT A. A Narrative of the Wonderful Escape and dreadful Sufferings of Colonel James Paul, after the Defeat of Col. Crawford, when that unfortunate Commander, and many of his men, were inhumanly burnt at the Stake. 8vo, original wrappers, uncut. Cincinnati, 1869

FIRST EDITION IN BOOK FORM.

569. SHIPPEN PAPERS, THE. [THOMAS BALCH.] Letters and Papers relating chiefly to the Provincial History of Pennsylvania, with some Notices of the Writers. 8vo, half morocco; rebacked. Philadelphia: Privately Printed, 1855

Known as the Shippen papers. A manuscript note by B. H. Dixon on the fly-leaf reads as follows: "Only one hundred copies of the first part (Genealogical Notices) were printed and one hundred and twenty copies of the Letters and Papers. Given to me by Mr. Balch—Jan. 1856. B. H. D."

From the library of B. Homer Dixon, with bookplate.

570. SHIPWRECKS. A collection of narratives of shipwrecks and captivities, 8 vols., 8vo to 24mo, mostly half and full morocco. V.p., v.d.

A FINE COLLECTION OF THESE INTERESTING NARRATIVES, including:

The Narrative of Mr. John Soren, piratically captured on the high seas. London, 1800.

578. SMETHURST, GAMALIEL. A Narrative of an extraordinary Escape out of the Hands of the Indians, in the Gulph of St. Lawrence; interspersed With a Description of the Coast, and Remarks on the Customs and Manners of the Savages there: also, A Providential Escape after a Shipwreck, in coming from the Island St. John, in said Gulph; with an Account of the Fisheries round that Island. Likewise, A Plan for reconciling the Differences between Great Britain and her Colonies. 4to, half red levant morocco, gilt top, by Macdonald; faintly foxed. London: Printed for the Author, 1774

A FINE COPY OF THE VERY RARE FIRST EDITION. APPARENTLY NO RECORD OF PUBLIC SALE SINCE THE BARLOW SALE IN 1890. The author helped Captain M'Kenzie in removing the Acadians, and in so doing was left ashore by one of the ships; he endeavored to make his way overland to Fort Cumberland, and was detained by the Indians on the way.

579. SMITH, CHARLES. American War, From 1775 to 1783. Portrait of Washington by Tisdale and 7 folding maps by D. Martin, Roberts, St. Memin, and Tanner. 8vo, full blue crushed levant morocco, Jansen style, gilt top, lower edges uncut, by SANGORSKI & SUTCLIFFE; view of Quebec missing, small marginal repairs. New York, 1797

VERY RARE. This history was originally printed as a series of articles in "Smith's Monthly Repository" and was mostly reset for publication in the present form. It is said that the descriptions of the war were supplied by Baron Steuben and General Gates.

THE VERY RARE FIRST EDITION OF A FAMOUS NARRATIVE OF INDIAN CAPTIVITY

580. SMITH, JAMES. An Account of the remarkable Occurrences in the Life and Travels of Col. James Smith, (Now a Citizen of Bourbon County, Kentucky,) during his Captivity with the Indians, in the Years 1755, '56, '57, '58, & '59, In which the Customs, Manners, Traditions, Theological Sentiments, Mode of Warfare, Military Tactics, Discipline and Encampments, Treatment of prisoners, &c. are better explained, and more minutely related, than has been heretofore done, by any author on that subject. Together with a Description of the Soil, Timber and Waters, where he travelled with the Indians, during his captivity. To which is added, A Brief Account of some Very Uncommon Occurrences, which transpired after his return from captivity; as well as of the Different Campaigns carried on against the Indians to the westward of Fort Pitt, since the year 1755, to the present date. Written by himself. 8vo, full maroon levant morocco, gilt tooled, gilt top, SOME FORE-EDGES UNCUT, by THE ROSE BINDERY; restoration in title and preface leaves, including a few letters. Lexington: Printed by John Bradford, 1799

THE EXCEEDINGLY RARE FIRST EDITION; THE FIRST COPY TO APPEAR AT PUBLIC SALE SINCE 1901. APPARENTLY ONLY SEVEN COPIES ARE KNOWN, the others being located in the New York Historical Society, Library of Congress, Ayer, Wisconsin Historical Society, Huntington, and H. V. Jones libraries.

AN ACCOUNT

OF THE

REMARKABLE OCCURRENCES

IN THE LIFE AND TRAVELS OF

Col. JAMES SMITH,

(Now a Citizen of Bourbon County, Kentucky,)

DURING HIS CAPTIVITY WITH THE INDIANS,

IN THE YEARS 1755, '56, '57, '58, & '59,

In which the Cuſtoms, Manners, Traditions, Theological Sentiments, Mode of Warfare, Military Tactics, Diſcipline and Encampments, Treatment of priſoners, &c. are better explained, and more minutely related, than has been heretofore done, by any author on that ſubject. Together with a Deſcription of the Soil, Timber and Waters, where he travelled with the Indians, during his captivity.

TO WHICH IS ADDED,

A Brief Account of ſome Very Uncommon Occurrences, which tranſpired after his return from captivity; as well as of the Different Campaigns carried on againſt the Indians to the weſtward of Fort Pitt, ſince the year 1755, to the preſent date.

Printed by JOHN BRADFORD, on Main Street

[NUMBER 580]

581. SMITH, CAPTAIN JOHN. The True Travels, Adventures, and Observations of Captaine Iohn Smith, in Europe, Asia, Affrica, and America, from Anno Domini 1593. to 1629. His Accidents and Sea-fights in the Straights, his Service and Stratagems of warre in Hungaria, Transilvania, Wallachia, and Moldavia, against the Turks, and Tartars . . . Together with a continuation of his generall History of Virginia, Summer-Iles, New England, and their proceedings, since 1624. to this present 1629; as also of the new Plantations of the great River of the Amazons, the Iles of St. Christopher, Mevis, and Barbadoes in the West Indies. Folding plate in nine compartments (linen-backed); coat of arms on the verso of the title-leaf; and woodcuts in text. Small folio, full red levant morocco, gilt tooled, gilt edges, by MATTHEWS. London: Printed by J. H. for Thomas Slater, 1630

FIRST EDITION; THE TEXT IS ONE OF THE EARLIER IMPRESSIONS, with p. 15 wrongly numbered 13, p. 34 numbered 36, and "Plantains" spelled "Plantnais" on p. 54. Page 60, however, displays the correct spelling of "Moores", and p. 44 bears the marginal note "Good Hospitality". The top margin of the plate has been restored, with some of the missing words and a few tears repaired; a blank corner restored; faint stains. The plate is in the second state with the caption of the middle left compartment reading "His three single Combats before Regall in Transilvania." The headpiece of the contents is in THE EARLY STATE containing the crowned symbols of England, France, Scotland, and Ireland.

Some of the material in this work was published by Purchas in his "Pilgrimes" in 1625, evidently from Captain Smith's manuscript, but omitting and condensing a great deal. Chapters 21-28 consist chiefly of a compilation from various narratives forming a continuation of his "Generall Historie", and for this reason the book was generally bound with the later issue of that work.

582. SMITH, JOSHUA HETT. An Authentic Narrative of the Causes which led to the Death of Major André. To which is added a Monody on the Death of Major André. By Miss Seward. Portrait, map and plate. Small 8vo, full polished calf, gilt tooled, gilt edges, by WORSFOLD; slightly rubbed. London, 1808

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION.

AN IMMACULATE COPY OF AN EXCEEDINGLY RARE EDITION

583. SMITH, MRS. MARY. An affecting Narrative of the Captivity and Sufferings of Mrs. Mary Smith, who With her Husband, and three Daughters, was taken prisoner by the Indians, in August, 1814, and after enduring the most cruel hardships and torture of mind for sixty days, in which time she witnessed the tragical death of her husband and helpless children, was rescued from the hands of the merciless savages, by a detached party from the army of the brave Gen. Jackson, then commanding at New-Orleans. Woodcut vignette. 12mo, sewn, UNCUT. In a full brown crushed levant morocco slip case, by SANGORSKI & SUTCLIFFE. N.p., n.d., circa 1818

AN IMMACULATE COPY OF AN EXCEEDINGLY RARE EDITION. Sabin (No. 83542) quotes the title from a photostat of the Brinley copy in the Yale University Library.

The events recounted took place in the West Florida region, now included in Mississippi, the Indians mentioned being a band of Kickapoos and runaway Chickasaws. The captives included Richard Smith, his wife Mary, their three children, and a Negro lad. After being taken prisoners, Mr. Smith and the children were killed, while Mrs. Smith was spared to become the wife of one of the chiefs. Killing him while he slept, she escaped for several days, but was recaptured by the Indians, and shortly afterwards was rescued by a company of soldiers under Lieutenant Brown.

584. —— An Affecting Narrative of the Captivity and Sufferings of Mrs. Mary Smith, who With her Husband, and Three Daughters were taken prisoners by the Indians, in August, 1814, and after enduring the most cruel hardships . . . was rescued from the merciless savages by a detached party of the army of the brave General Jackson, then commanding at New Orleans. 12mo, full blue levant morocco, gilt tooled, by SANGORSKI & SUTCLIFFE. Williamsburgh: Printed by Ephraim Whitman, 1818

AN EXCEEDINGLY RARE EDITION. Sabin quotes the title from a photostat of the copy in the Ayer collection.

The printer, Ephraim Whitman, was the son of the Rev. Samuel Whitman, pastor of the church in Goshen, Hampshire County, Mass., and his press was first set up in a building in the adjoining town of Williamsburg, as the name is now spelled, where he printed about a half dozen works bearing the "Williamsburgh" imprint, of which this was one. He moved his press to his father's house, and it is possible that some of the works bearing the "Williamsburgh" imprint of 1818 were actually printed in Goshen.

585. SMITH, MICHAEL. A Complete History of the late American War with Great Britain and her Allies. 18mo, full niger morocco, foxed. Lexington, Ky.: Printed for the Author, 1816

The earliest complete edition that can be obtained. It is said that an earlier edition was published in Richmond, but no copy has been found.

586. SMITH, SAMUEL. The History of the Colony of Nova-Caesaria, or New-Jersey: containing, an Account of its first Settlement, progressive Improvements, the original and present Constitution, and other Events, to the Year 1721. 8vo, half brown polished morocco, gilt tooled, gilt edges; contemporary name on title-page. Burlington, 1765

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION. The earliest printed history of New Jersey, compiled by a native of the colony and considered a standard authority on the subject.

587. SMITH, MRS. SEBA. The Western Captive, or, Times of Tecumseh. Nos. 27 and 28 of Vol. II. of the New World. Extra Series, October, 1842. Small folio, half green polished morocco; lightly foxed. New York, 1842

588. SMITH, WILLIAM. The History Of the Province of New-York, from the First Discovery to the Year 1732. To which is annexed, A Description of the Country, with a short Account of the Inhabitants, their Trade, Religious and Political State, and the Constitution of the Courts of Justice in that Colony. Folding view of Oswego. 4to, full red crushed levant morocco, gilt tooled, gilt edges, by RIVIERE; title-page and map rehinged. London: Thomas Wilcox, 1757

A SPLENDID COPY OF THE RARE FIRST EDITION.
From the library of Edward N. Crane, with bookplate.

589. [SMITH, WILLIAM, provost.] A Brief State of the Province of Pennsylvania, in which The Conduct of their Assemblies for several Years past is impartially examined, and the true Cause of the continual Encroachments of the French displayed, more especially the secret Design of their late unwarrantable Invasion and Settlement upon the Ohio. 8vo, half morocco, gilt top; one joint cracked. London, 1755

SECOND EDITION, containing a letter not found in the first edition. The work is an attack on the Quakers for their policy in the Assembly of refusing support to plans for the defence of the Province. [For answers to Smith's statements, see Numbers 139 and 197.]

590. [——] A Brief View of the Conduct of Pennsylvania, For the Year 1755; So far as it affected the General Service of the British Colonies, particularly the Expedition under the late General Braddock. With an Account of the shocking Inhumanities, committed by Incursions of the Indians upon the Province. 8vo, half morocco, gilt top, uncut; slightly rubbed. London, 1756

A SPLENDID COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION. A defense of the writer's "Brief State".

591. [——] Etat Présent de la Pensilvanie, où l'on trouve le détail de ce qui s'y est passé depuis la défaite du Général Braddock jusqu'a la prise d'Oswego. Folding map. 12mo, half brown polished morocco, red edges, by STIKEMAN. [Paris] 1756

A FINE COPY. This work is usually attributed to Abbé Jean Ignace de la Ville, but pp. 21-78 contain an abridgement of Smith's "Brief View of the Conduct of Pennsylvania".

592. [——] An Historical Account of the Expedition against the Ohio Indians, in the Year 1764. Under the Command of Henry Bouquet, Esq: including his Transactions with the Indians, relative to the delivery of their prisoners, and the preliminaries of Peace. With an Introductory Account of the Preceding Campaign, And Battle at Bushy-Run. To which are annexed Military Papers. 2 folding plans. 4to, full blue crushed levant morocco, gilt tooled, gilt top, by MACDONALD.
Philadelphia: William Bradford, 1765

THE VERY RARE FIRST EDITION. The original folding map by Hutchins is missing, and one from the French edition of 1769 has been substituted. EXTRA-ILLUSTRATED by the insertion of portraits of William Smith and Henry Bouquet, and two plates after Benjamin West.

593. ——Another edition. Folding map (linen-backed), 2 charts, and 2 plates. 4to, half red levant morocco, gilt tooled, gilt top, by MACDONALD. London: T. Jefferies, 1766

FIRST ENGLISH EDITION, with the leaf of advertisement at the end. Inserted after the title-page is a broadside advertisement of the sale of 100,000 acres of land on the waters of the Ohio, Richmond, December 24, 1805. A name has been written on the introduction leaf.

594. [——] Relation Historique de l'Expédition, contre Les Indiens de l'Ohio en 1764. Commandie par le Chevalier Henry Bouquet. Traduit de l'Anglois Par C. G. F. Dumas. 6 maps and plates. 8vo, contemporary calf; cover slightly wormed.
Amsterdam, 1769

A FINE COPY tOF THE FIRST FRENCH EDITION, with a folding map inserted at the end: "Carte des Etats Mitoyens de l'Amérique Unie par Thos. Couder".

595. —— Another copy, 8vo, contemporary boards, red edges. Amsterdam, 1769

A FINE COPY.

596. —— Discourses on Several Public Occasions During the War in America, London, 1759 ❖ A Sermon On the Present Situation of American Affairs. Preached in Christ Church, June 23, 1775, Phila., 1775. Together 2 vols., 8vo, half morocco and cloth; the second foxed.

FIRST EDITIONS. [See also Number 406.]

597. [SMITH, WILLIAM R.] Observations on the Wisconsin Territory; chiefly on that Part called the "Wisconsin Land District". Folding colored map. 12mo, full green morocco, gilt tooled, gilt top. Philadelphia, 1838

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION. Laid in is a manuscript account of the burning of Royalton gathered from surviving participants, dated Norwich, July 12, 1796. The manuscript is not signed.

607. STEWART, CATHARINE. New Homes in the West. 12mo, original cloth; pages time-stained. In a cloth slip case.
Nashville, 1843

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION OF A VERY RARE NARRATIVE, detailing life, adventures, and personal observations during more than ten years of travel and residence in the western country from 1830 to 1842.

The author lived among the Pottawattamies at St. Joseph, Michigan, and gives many valuable particulars of Po-ke-gan's rule, the councils, and the treaty of Chicago concluded in 1833. She also describes early Chicago and the Fox and Rock River country in 1836; a journey to Wisconsin Territory and Fort Snelling, including notes on the mines, towns and Indians; a voyage down the Mississippi to the Mormon settlement at Nauvoo; another to St. Louis, with notices of the fur trade; etc.

608. STILES, EZRA. A History of three of the Judges of King Charles I. Major-General Whalley, Major-General Goffe, and Colonel Dixwell: Who, at the Restoration, 1660, Fled to America . . . With an Account of Mr. Theophilus Whale. Portrait and 8 plates and plans. 12mo, full brown levant morocco, gilt tooled, gilt edges, by MACDONALD. Hartford, 1794

FIRST EDITION. The plates and plans are numbered I-IX, but no copy has been found with plate VII. The slip of errata is not in this copy.

609. STILES, HENRY R. Bundling; its Origin, Progress and Decline in America. Square 12mo, original cloth, uncut and unopened. Albany, 1869

THE RARE FIRST EDITION, not to be confused with the common edition of 1871.

610. STITH, WILLIAM. The History of the First Discovery and Settlement of Virginia: being An Essay towards a General History of this Colony. 8vo, full green levant morocco, gilt tooled, gilt edges; joints worn, some uncut fore edges.
Williamsburg: William Parks, 1747

A FINE, CLEAN COPY OF THIS SOURCE BOOK FOR THE HISTORY OF VIRGINIA. There were two issues published in Williamsburg bearing the date 1747. This copy agrees with the second described in the Church Catalogue, but with the signatures clean.

611. STRATTON, R. B. Captivity of the Oatman Girls: being an interesting Narrative of Life among the Apache and Mohave Indians. Illustrated. 12mo, original cloth; very faintly foxed.
San Francisco, 1857

A FINE COPY. The journal of the celebrated Oatman expedition across the plains to California in 1850, containing an account of the attack by the Camanche Indians in what is now Arizona, and of the extermination of most of the party.

612. STURGIS, THOMAS. The Ute War of 1879. Why the Indian Bureau should be transferred from the Department of the Interior to the Department of War. 8vo, ORIGINAL WRAPPERS. In a half blue polished morocco slip case.
Cheyenne, Wyoming: Leader Steam Book and Job Printing House, 1870

A FINE COPY. RARE. This work tells of the massacre of Meeker and his family, the character of the Indian agents, the history of the Ute outbreak, etc.

613. TAILFER, PATRICK, and others. A True and Historical Narrative Of the Colony of Georgia In America, From the first Settlement thereof until this present Period: containing The most authentick Facts, Matters and Transactions therein; together with His Majesty's Charter, Representations of the People, Letters, &c. and A Dedication to his Excellency General Oglethrope. By Pat. Tailfer, Hugh Anderson, Da. Douglas, and others. Small 8vo, full maroon crushed levant morocco, gilt tooled, gilt edges, by MACDONALD.
Charles-Town, South-Carolina: Printed by P. Timothy, for the Authors, 1741

A FINE COPY OF THE SECOND OR THIRD EDITION. This edition seems to have been really printed in London, preceded by the genuine Charleston edition. Another edition was printed in London in the same year, and priority has not been determined. The collation of this copy is pp. xviii, 118.

Tailfer was the chief of a party of malcontents in Savannah whose conduct became so obnoxious to Governor Oglethorpe that they were forced to quit the province. They took refuge in South Carolina, where they printed this tract. It contains a masterly statement of the author's alleged grievances against Oglethorpe, and is one of the most expert pieces of writing to be found in our early literature.

614. TANNER, JOHN. A Narrative of the Captivity and Adventures of John Tanner, (U. S. Interpreter at the Saut de Ste. Marie,) during Thirty Years residence among the Indians in the Interior of North America. Prepared for the Press by Edwin James. Portrait and illustrations. 8vo, boards, cloth back.

New York, 1830

A FINE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION. Tanner spent a part of his life in the Red River country, and the work contains a long account of the Hudson's Bay and Northwest Companies. At the end are comments on the Indians, their language and vocabularies, folklore, etc.

615. TARLETON, COL. BANASTRE. A History of the Campaigns of 1780 and 1781, in the Southern Provinces of North America. 5 maps, some folding. 4to, full crimson turkey morocco, Jansen style, gilt top, UNCUT, by MACDONALD.

London, 1787

A SUPERB COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION.

616. TAYLOR, JOSEPH H. Sketches of Frontier and Indian Life on the Upper Missouri and Great Plains Embracing the Author's Personal Recollections of Noted Frontier Characters, and Some Observations of Wild Indian Life. Illustrated. 12mo, half roan; rubbed.

Pottstown, Pa.: Printed and Published by the Author, 1889

ORIGINAL EDITION. One of a few copies printed by the author on a hand press. In the reprints many of the sketches were omitted. The author gives an account of an overland trip in 1864-5, soldiering on the border, life in Wyoming, Montana and Missouri, etc.

617. THOMAS, DAVID. Travels through the Western Country in the Summer of 1816. Folding map. 12mo, half brown levant morocco, gilt tooled, gilt top, uncut; foxed, library stamped.

Auburn, 1819

A scarce book of exploration of the Wabash lands of Illinois.

St. Louis, Mo.: Printed and Published by the Artist at the Republican Office, 1841 [-2]

A SUPERB COPY OF WHAT IS PROBABLY THE RAREST SERIES OF LITHOGRAPHIC VIEWS OF THE WEST. THE FIRST COMPLETE COPY TO APPEAR AT PUBLIC SALE, though the first two numbers were sold at these Galleries in 1929. S. J. Buck locates a copy in the Chicago Historical Society Library.

The work was issued in nine numbers from July, 1841, to March, 1842, the first number having a lithographed title-page and each of the succeeding numbers a printed title-page, differing only in the number, month, and year. The title-page to No. 7 is missing in this copy.

THIS WORK IS OF SUCH VAST IMPORTANCE IN THE PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE MISSISSIPPI VALLEY THAT A COMPLETE LIST OF THE PLATES IS GIVEN BELOW. It should be noted that the historical descriptions are based on contemporary newspaper files, reports, histories, and personal interviews with the gentlemen of the American Fur Company, Kenneth McKenzie, and others.

Title vignette, showing emigrants around a camp fire, prairie schooners and horses in the distance, and a lurking Indian behind a tree.

648. WASHINGTON TERRITORY GOLD MINING. Map of the Nez Perces and Salmon River Gold Mines in Washington Territory. Compiled from the most recent Surveys By Daniel W. Lowell & Co. Folding map lithographed by Britton & Co., San Francisco. 16mo, blue limp cloth. In a dark blue levant morocco slip case. San Francisco: Whitton, Waters & Co., 1862

A SUPERB COPY, AND ONE OF THE FEW KNOWN. The map depicts the country from Vancouver to Bears River on the north and from Eugene City to Red Butte on the south, with the routes and trails, the agencies, missions, forts, passes, emigrant roads, unexplored regions, and all the newly located gold deposits.

The text states that the map had been corrected by Alonzo Leland and others who had mined and prospected during the past season in the regions described. It is a narrative of conditions at the new diggings, written from personal experience. The text also contains the code of sixteen laws adopted at a meeting of miners at Summit Hill, and the mining laws of the Oro Fino District adopted at a mass meeting of the miners of the district. There are also two tables of distances to the mines.

Laid in is a manuscript verdict of a jury, signed, on a prisoner who hanged himself in jail in Jackson County, Oregon, July 27, 1856.

APPRAISALS

For United States and State Tax Insurance and Other Purposes

The American Art Association-Anderson Galleries, Inc., will furnish appraisals, made by experts under its direct supervision, of art and literary property, jewelry, and all personal effects, in the settlement of estates or for inheritance tax, insurance, or other purposes.

Upon request the Company will furnish the names of many trust and insurance companies, executors, administrators, trustees, attorneys and private individuals for whom the Company has made appraisals which not only have been entirely satisfactory to them, but which have been accepted by the United States Estate Tax Bureau, the State Tax Commission, and others in interest.

The Company is prepared to supplement its appraisal work by making catalogues of private libraries, of the contents of homes, or of entire estates, such catalogues to be modeled after the carefully-produced sales catalogues of the Company.
